

RESEARCHING HISTORIES OF EDUCATIONAL SPACES, DISCOURSES AND SOURCES

Histories of Education Summer School Conference for Postgraduate Students

University of Hamburg, Germany

13-16 June 2013

Call for Applications

This conference is for postgraduate history of education researchers who are interested in the histories of educational spaces and discourses and new ways of working with images, artefacts and archives. Leading international historians of education will offer advice about the research process, including publication, and there will be opportunities for students to discuss their research topics and to network.

This is the fourth conference and follows on from successful events in Ghent in 2010, Birmingham in 2011 and Lisbon 2012. It is organised by EERA Network 17 'Histories of Education' and the Universities of Birmingham, Cambridge, Ghent and Hamburg.

The conference is supported by the

- Paedagogica Historica Foundation
- History of Education Society, UK
- International Standing Conference for History of Education (ISCHE)
- European Educational Research Association (EERA)
- Faculty of Education, University of Hamburg.

The conference language is English.

The participation of conference is free; accommodation and food will be provided. Delegates will only have to cover the cost of their travel to Hamburg.

Places are limited to 30 students. Application forms can be obtained from the EERA Office at <summerschool-hamburg@eera.eu>.

Closing date for applications is December 31st 2012; successful applicants will be notified in February 2013.

Local organisers are:

Prof. Dr. Christine Mayer, Prof. Dr. Ingrid Lohmann, Dipl. Päd. Sylvia Lässig
